

NC-PROGRAMMIERER m|f|m

With innovation and tradition, precision machine tools are developed, designed and produced in Glauchau. The WEMA-GLAUCHAU brand manufactures inner round, universal round, rolling bearing and flat grinding machines and offers complete machining centers, contract grinding and contract milling. Due to the individual customer requirements, we offer a varied range of activities.

OUR REQUIREMENTS:

- Master's or technician's training or completed studies in the field of mechanical engineering
- Relevant professional experience in mechanical engineering required
- Sound knowledge of CNC programming, machine operation and machine setup
- Application-ready knowledge of NC-controllers and solution-oriented approach
- Independent, determined, fast and responsible working method
- Proficiency in English

OUR OFFER:

- Training period with the help of our experienced staff
- Varied work in an interesting environment
- Collaborative team structures and long-term career prospects
- Performance-related Remuneration
- Use of a wide of employee offers

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Creating, setting up and optimizing NC programs
- Setting up tools and clamping devices
- Carrying out machine inspections and trainings in the company and at the customer
- Logged takeover of NC machines to the customer
- Technical support, induction and training of employees of other company departments
- Operation of the company's own machinery and equipment as well as the machinery and equipment of the suppliers
- Communication with customers and suppliers

▶▶▶ We look forward to receiving your application by e-mail stating the earliest possible start date and your earnings expectations.

