

ELECTRICAL DESIGNER m|f|m

With innovation and tradition, precision machine tools are developed, designed and produced in Glauchau. The WEMA-GLAUCHAU brand manufactures inner round, universal round, rolling bearing and flat grinding machines and offers complete machining centers, contract grinding and contract milling. Due to the individual customer requirements, we offer a varied range of activities.

YOU BRING WITH YOU:

- Completed studies in electrical engineering, electronics, general mechanical engineering or a comparable course of study
- Experience in machining complete electrical equipment for machines
- Ready to user and safe handling of the design and calculation software E-Plan P8
- Secure handling of common MS-Office applications
- Purposeful, fast and independent working methods
- Several years of professional experience desirable

OUR OFFER:

- Training period with the help of our experienced staff
- Varied work in an interesting environment
- Collaborative team structures and long-term career prospects
- Performance-related Remuneration
- Use of a wide of employee offers

YOUR AREA OF RESPONSIBILITY:

- Independent development of electrical concepts, designs and constructions for new developments, prototypes and customer-specific changes
- Independent design of electrical wiring diagrams and parts lists for our existing grinding machines according to customer specifications
- Independent management and implementation of the projects assigned to you and supervision of the installation of the corresponding electrical equipment
- Supervision of the electrical acceptance of the machines and supervision of the acceptance protocols
- Support of service adjustments of our delivered machines

 We look forward to receiving your application by e-mail stating the earliest possible start date and your earnings expectations

